FATHER SUES SON. West Havener Accused of Deception in Acquiring $10,000 Worth of Norwalk Property. John B. Hanlon of West Haven has been sued by his father, Patrick Hanlon of Norwalk, for $10,000 in real estate, which the father alleges was secured from him fraudulently.

He says that his son came to him a few weeks ago and talked him into turning over several pleces of property in Norwalk, on the ground that another son would squander it if the father did not make the transfer.

The father is $4 years old, and now desires to get his property back. The son, John, refused to give it to him, and the suit is the result.

INTOLERABLE ITCHING

Fearful Eczema All Over Baby's Face -Professional Treatment Failed. A PERFECT CURE BY CUTICURA

"When my little girl was six months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. They grew so large that I sent for the doctor but, instead of helping the cruption, his ointment seemed to make it worse. Then I went to a second doctor who said it was eczema. He slso gave me an ointment which did not help sither. The disease spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. The itching grew intolerable and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors for months, but they were unable to cure the baby. I paid out from $20 to $30 without relief. One evening I began to use the Cutioura Remedies. The next morning the baby's face was all white instead of red. I continued until the eccema entirely disappeared. Mrs. P. E. Gumbin, Sheldon, Ia., July 13, 1908."

In its stuge form, the in recent years. In its stuge form, the remarkable manifestations, the rooms so filled with mystery and the odd characterizations take on added interest, something which is not always be case with stories that have been adapted for the stage. Despite the fact that there is a weirdness about the production, it is yet filled with a breezy comedy that arouses ripples of laughter as the mysteries of the story are unfolded. The production which will be seen here shortly has been made with especial care, as the four acts picturing the exterior of the mansion, the boat house, the chamber of strange sounds, and the room of the apparition are all mounted with spepparition are all mounted with spe-
